"BEFORE" AND "AFTER" TAKING

Machine Editor in Sorry Plight Trving to Hedge on Assessment Matter

Last week's Press presented a pitiable plight of an editor trying to square himself with the taxpayers, after having "opened his mouth and put his foot in it." His worming in and out, and backing and filling, and saying one thing in one line and denying it in another was amusing. The editor had forgotten the editorial of his that appeared August 23rd. When he reads it again and sees what a blunder he made he will doubtless deny responsibility and plead that he was lost in the Ferry building at the time, and was therefore non compos mentis.

The attempt of the Press and the machine poilticians to try to take credit for the good work done by Assessor Thomas and Supervisors Saxon and Lawson, will fall flat with the taxpayers. There was only one line of truth in the article in last week's Press regarding the matter and that was that the state board did not raise the assessment of the county.

Willful misrepresentation and base juggling of facts will do no good. The truth might as well be known, now that the machine politicians have tried their hands at doing politics at the expense of the small taxpayers. Here are the facts, and they cannot be successfully denied:

Machine politicians, with the idea of discrediting Assessor Thomas and Supervisors Saxon, Lawson and Gibson, put up a "job" to have the assessment of the county raised; then they would try to lay the blame at the door of these democratic officials. Proof—Read the editorial in the Press of August 23, where that erudite gentleman "let the cat out of the bag" by shooting off his mouth too soon. The Democratic officials are here blamed for not doing their duty and the state board commended for making the proposed "programmed" raise.

More proof—When Assessor Thomas and Supervisors Lawson and Saxon wanted some of the Republican members to go to Sacramento, none went. They thought it useless, as most everyone else did, as the "tip" had gotten out. The idea was to let just the Democratic members go, so it could be shown that they had no influence. But Supervisors Saxon and Lawson and Assessor Thomas were bent on doing their duty to the taxpayers and went to Sacramento in their official capacity, and naturally asked Auditor Mathews, the county bookkeeper, to go along, as they had the good of the taxpayers at heart.

The Press tries to make politics out of the fact that J. L. McNab, chirman of the republican county committee, went up to Sacramento in behalf of the small taxpayers. Mr. McNab is entitled to all the credit due him for the work he did there. With all due respect to him, however, he went not in the interest of the small taxpayers, nor at their request, but went as the paid attorney of several large lumber companies. So his voice was not raised in behalf of the common weal because of his regard for the poor man, but was raised in behalf of the wealthy companies, because he was paid for it. It was all right and proper for Mr. McNab to appear in that capacity, and no one blames him. Any other attorney would have put forth his best efforts under similiar circumstances. But the people wont stand for the reasons of the Press that he was animated by his love of the small taxpayers solely.

The further statement that other Republican war horses tore their coats off in behaf of the taxpayers wont bear investigation. Everyone knows just what former Auditor Caughey did, and what animated him in every act.

Everyone with an ounce of brains knows that the railroad board of equalization intended to raise all the cow counties to make up for the lax assessment of railroad property. If not why were all the cow counties cited to appear? If any further proof is needed to show that the board is absolutely owned by Mr. Herrin we might cite the first plank in the Republican Lincoln-Roosevelt league's platform. Further that the assessment of railroad property has not increased in proportion to other properties in the state. A railroad governor is trying to oust from the board of equalization Controller Nye who wanted to assess the railroad on its gross earnings for this year, in stead of last year, which would make an increase of nearly $20,000,000 in the assessment.

No proof is needed to prove that the board of equalization is the chattel of Mr. Herrin. It is an axiom. He got the whole bunch at Santa Cruz at the same time he got Gillett by paying Ruef and Schmitz $14,000.

MRS. HAZEL PACKER KINDLY REMEMBERED

Mrs. Hazel Packer, the accommodating assistant in the post office, was very kindly remembered this week in a very appropriate manner by the business patrons of the local post office. For years Mrs. Packer has been at her post of duty, working day and night, with only an occasional brief vacation. She has always been prompt, courteous, and obliging, and the patrons appreciate these things in a public official.

Last Sunday Mrs. Packer made a flying trip to St. Helena on a visit to her mother and little daughter. Her absence was immediately noticed and some of the business men suggested that they arrange a surprise for her upon her return, so about fifty men donated $87.50 as a present for her. Buying presents is a hard thing to do so it was decided to present her the purse and let her suit herself.

Affable Bert Miller made the presentation, and to say that Mrs. Packer was surprised only puts it mildly. She was overcome to think that the people so kindly appreciated her services, for her work is very irksome. She greatly appreciated the token of esteem, and desires to thank all those who contributed to the remembrance.

BELL IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF EAGLES

Last week the Grand Arie of Eagles was held in Norfolk, Va., and was attended by about 15000 Eagles. Hon. Theo. A. Bell, of Napa, was elected Worthy Grand President of the order in the United States by almost a unanimous vote. The order and the state of California is honored by the selection of Mr. Bell, who will make an able and energetic president.

Auto Causes Damage Suit

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, of this city, were up to their summer cabin at John Day's this week in their buggy. The Fuller auto came steaming by and scared the horse, causing it to turn the buggy over. It is said that Mr. Lawrence will sue Fuller for damages. Mr. Lawrence and wife are recent comers here and have been living in the Archie McClure house on south State steert.

Guard Higgins Here

George Higgins who holds a responsible position at San Quentin as guard came up yesterday to spend a few days vacation with old time friends. George is getting along nicely and says that he is able to sit up and take nourishment, now weighing 238 pounds. The other Mendocino guards there—Ike Elledge, Lou Fox and George Harris are all getting along nicely and like the job.

Railroad Improvement

The Northwestern Pacific railroad company is now preparing to lay new rails on the track from here to the city. The rails will be seventy-five pound rails, so it is evident that the road is getting ready for heavy traffic. New rails will also be put down from here to Willits, sixty five pound rails being used.

HOME FROM THE FROZEN NORTH

Miss Jessie Standley Remains to Teach in Nome School

The Nome party have at last gotten back to California. Mr. and Mrs. James Jamison and daughter arrived Saturday evening. The Gibsons stopped off in the city to visit for awhile, but they will all be home by the time this issue of the Dispatch is printed.

James Jamison is looking well and the trip did him a world of good. It took about eight days to go from Seattle to Nome, a distance of nearly 2400 miles and about as long to return. Most of the party were sick on both trips. Jim, however, fared pretty well and enjoyed it hugely. He was pleased with Nome, and took in a number of mines. He saw a clean up of $56,000 in one day from one mine. Wages there for laborers is about twice what it is here, $5 a day and board. Cost of living is about twice as much as here. He enjoyed the changing climate. People were reading newspapers at midnight by twilight when he first arrived there. Nome has a population of 7000 and is a typical northern town.

Doc Standley and wife are well and send regards to all inquiring friends. Doc is on the police force, and has several good mines that promise a big yield. Mr. and Mrs. Standley were greatly surprised and elated when the party arrived. They begged Jessie to remain with them this winter, and the trustees of the Nome school offered her the eight grade at $150 per month so she decided to stay with her parents.

OSCAR COOPER WEDS MISS ANITA HARVEY

Oscar Cooper and Miss Anita Harvey were united in marriage Wednesday at the home of Miss Harvey's grandmother, Mrs. Eleanor Martin, in San Francisco. No more beautiful wedding presents have ever been sent to a San Francioso bride. Two large rooms at the Harvey residence on Webster street were filled with a fascinating collection of things, there being silver and cut glass galore and several gold plates.

The bride is a popular society belle of the metropolis, and is very wealthy. The groom is a Mendocino county boy and is the son of Judge and Mrs, J. A. Cooper. He is another one of the Mendocinoites that have made good, and all are proud of him. He was given a splendid education, being a graduate of Harvard law school, and has already built up an excellent practice in the city. He is one son of a weatlhy man that has made the most of the opportunities given him. The many friends of the Cooper family in this county wish Oscar and his fair bride the best that the world has in store.

Hotel Hamlin

In another column will be found the ad of the Hotel Hamlin at the corner of Eddy and Leavenworth streets, San Francisco. The Hamlin is owned by George Hamlin Fitch, the literary and night editor of the Chronicle, while Kirk Harris, formerly coast telegraph editor of the Chronicle, is the genial manager. The Hamlin is a good place to stop and is becoming the headquarters for Mendocino county business men.

Masons Visit Willits

Several of the members of the local lodge of Masons went up to Willits Wednesday evening to assist in giving the third degree to two candidates. A very enjoyable time was had. Those going from here were Worshipful Master Dr. E. G. Case, A. V. and J. L. McNab, F. E. and L. P. Anker, M. A. Thomas and I. W. Grover.

Among those in town this week was W. H. Benson, of Hopland.

GAS PLANT IS WANTED

What The People Think About Gas for Fuel Here

The fact that a gas plant was talked of here, and that the talk meant business has met with a hearty response from the people. Everyone thinks there will be no question about getting enough consumers to make the plant a paying investment for those interested in the project. The thing is to get enough local capital interested to start the ball rolling.

District Attorney Duncan received a letter last week from Senator Caldwell, containing definite information about the installation of a gas plant. Mr. Caldwell says that gas can easily compete with wood when wood is $5.50 and $6.00 a cord. That there are a number of towns with fewer inhabitants where the plant pays the stockholders a fair profit, and at the same time furnishes fuel for the consumers much cheaper than by buying wood or coal. He says that fuel for cooking purposes costs the average family about $3 per month. This is certainly cheaper than wood. Mr. Caldwell further says that if the people here are inclined to be interested in the matter he will make an attempt to put in a plant here at once. He thinks that a plant ought to be built for the future for this town, as Ukiah is growing rapidly, and will be a town of 5000 people in a few years. He thought that $25,000 or $30,000 should be the capital stock of the company.

District Attorney Duncan has interested himself in the matter and thinks a plant ought to be established here by all means. He says he is tired of trying to build fires with wet kindling wood in winter, also that it is too hot to attempt to cook in summer time with a wood stove. He thinks that the people of Ukiah are entitled to the comforts that the 20th century brings to all that are enterprising. He is in favor of trying to induce enough local capital to go into the enterprise to insure the establishment of a plant here.

B. S. Hirsch is also an enthusiast over the matter. He thinks it would be a great thing for the town and hopes that the plant may be established at once and is ready to be one of the consumers. He thought it would be an excellent idea to let the people have shares in small amounts so as to insure sufficient consumers as to warrant the installation of the plant.

Hale McCowen thought that the ladies of the town would see that the plant was established. They are tired of cooking in the extreme heat of summer and disgusted with the green wood of winter. All you have to do is to light the gas and get ready. No trouble getting the wood hauled, and piled up. It is cleaner, more convenient, and cheaper, so why would not the people welcome it?

Frank Barker thought it would be a great thing for the town—just keep the cost of fuel he says to where wood is and there will be no trouble in getting consumers. The thing is to get enough capital to establish the plant. There is no extra expense hardly in making the change on stoves. A wood stove can be changed to a gas burner for very little cost. If anything happens a little wood can be used. The people will have it sooner or later. It is bound to come.

Dr. Case was of the same opinion as the others. He thought that Ukiah was entitled to the best and was anxious to see a gas plant installed here. He was also tired of being roasted in summer.

Judge White thought that the wood question was now a problem that would have to be solved by the installation of a gas plant sooner or later and he would welcome its coming. Gas will be used if anywhere as cheap as wood.

Mr. Duncan and several others that are interested in the matter contemplate making a visit to the Santa Rosa plant in a few days and getting all the detail information necessary. So it looks as though there is a reasonable assurance that the plant will be established.

Supervisors Fall Out

The supervisors returned this week from Round valley where they had gone to inspect the bridge across Eel river on the road to Glenn county. The entire board and Surveyor Redwine went along and made the trip in excellent shape. They went clear to the top of the eastern range of mountains where thy could see into the Sacramento valley. They went horse back and mule back out to Thomson's and had no mishaps until the return to Covelo.

Gibson and Barnard had been in the habit of sleeping together but could not find a bed large enough and took separate beds. That night both of them fell out of bed and the inhabitants thought that another earthquake had come and turned on the hose in order to put out any fire that might start and dampened the ardor of the two supervisors. The rest of the trip was made without further mishap. The bridge will undoubtedly be accepted and work on the road continued.

PINHEAD'S CHARGES FALSE AS USUAL

The charges made against Supervisor Saxon in last weeks's Times have turned out, as was expected, to be absolutely without foundation. Why a newspaper will willfully publish such falsehoods is beyond human understanding. When the article first appeared everyone denounced it at sight as being false. The article stated that Supervisor Saxon was buying bridge lumber from the Irvine & Muir and Northwestern Redwood companies for $48 a thousand that could be gotten elsewhere for $20 per thousand. The article went on to state that the lumber was hauled a long distance and right by three other mills, and etc.

The editor of the Dispatch called up Supervisor Saxon on the 'phone yesterday and asked him about the matter. Mr. Saxon says that he has never bought a stick of lumber from Irvine & Muir company since he has been supervisor, that not a stick of lumber for county purposes has been shipped over the railroad. That he has always bought his lumber at the nearest mill, at the cheapest possible figure, as the bills on file will show. Most of the lumber has been bought from the mill in Jackson valley. He tried to get some lumber once from the Vassar mill but they did not have any bridge lumber on hand, so his road overseer got it from Jackson valley. In regard to Baker's mill, he says he was there once and there was not a stick of lumber in the yard.

That he was once notified by the stage driver that a little bridge up on Rattlesnake ridge needed fixing. He instructed the driver to take some lumber back with him and fix the bridge, and to get the lumber at the nearest place. The driver did as instructed and the bridge was fixed. So this is all there is to Pinheads's groundless charge. The other members of the board of supervisors have just returned from Mr. Saxon's district, and laughed at the silly charge made by "Hard Times." It was the opinion of the board that Rhodes published the article to get even because the board had rejected an illegal claim of his for printing—a claim that should be paid by the Fish commission. Other members of the board are expecting a volley from the Times for the same reason.

High School Opens Auspiciously

High school opened this week for the fall semester with a good attendance on hand. All the old pupils were on hand and an exceptionally large number of Freshmen. The school starts out pleasantly and the new teachers are taking hold of the work readily. Principal Garrison starts out like a veteran and will soon have everything running smoothly. The school begins very auspiciously, both teachers and pupils being well pleased.

F. B. Harvey, a son-in-law of L. B. Frasier, died in San Francisco this week after an illness of several months. Death was caused by a tumor on the neck. The remains were brought to this city and taken to Potter valley for interment.

HIGH TENSION AT VANCOUVER

RACE WAR BETWEEN JAPS AND EUROPEANS BREAKS OUT IN PORTLAND, OREGON.

The London Times Demands That Japanese on British Soil Must Be Given Protection.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 12.—Race war between Japanese and Europeans broke out in Portland last night on board the French bark St. Louis.

It finally resulted in the ejectment of the little brown men, but not until they had felt the imprints of their fists upon the physiogomy of the attacking party.

The battle raged for an hour and at its termination the deck was red with blood. Advices say that the row was started by the French sailors who came on board slightly intoxicated. The Japs left the ship and made arrangements with immigration officers to go north to British Columbia, where it is understood they will join forces with their warring countrymen.

High Tension at Vancouver.

Vancouver, Sept. 12.—That a perfected military system embodying 5,000 Japanese is in existence in Vancouver, was the declaration made today by Secretary A. E. Fowler of the Japanese-Korean Exclusion League of Seattle, who came here at the invitation of a local anti-Oriental body to speak at the meeting which resulted in a riot Saturday evening.

"These 5,000 Japanese," says Fowler, "are as well organized as our soldiers in the American army. They have officers to whom they report and with whom they are in close touch at all times, especially now when another demonstration is likely to take place at any moment.

"They have minute and systematic plans for defense in case their section of the city is again attacked. All of these Japanese, or practically all of them, are armed. The anti-Asiatic League of this city would not attempt to allow another demonstrative parade to occur because if they should visit Japanesetown the loss of life would be tremendous. It is my prediction more whites would be killed than Orientals."

While there has been little excitement in Vancouver today everything is at high tension. Although the authorities have forbidden a meeting to be held when the steamship Monteagle docks with 114 Japanese, 900 Hindus and 119 Chinese, the Asiatic exclusion people declare they will meet anyway.

Demands That Japs Be Protected.

London, Sept. 12.—The Times this morning in an editorial article says it is convinced that there is now full and ample confirmation of the belief that the anti-Oriental riots at Vancouver were actually organized by American labor agitators, "the men whose intrigues brought San Francisco under domination of Ruef and Schmitz."

The paper says it believes "this shameful riot upon British subjects was gotten up by officials of American labor organizations for the purpose of conveying to M. Ishii, the member of the Commercial Department of the Japanese Foreign Office, who is now at Vancouver, the feelings of the labor element of the Pacific Coast.

Accounting for the race prejudice evidenced in such disturbances, the paper says:

"The plain truth is that on account of his thrift and industry, quite as much as on account of the low wages for which he works, the Asiatic is regarded as a dangerous competitor in the labor markets which the laborites want to keep as a monopoly in white hands."

In conclusion the Times says:

"The rights of all men who visit British soil, of whatever color or race, must be unflinchingly upheld by the whole authority of the local government and the imperial crown."

Auto Smashes Buggy; Two Are Hurt.

San Jose, Sept. 12.—While driving his automobile in the darkness east of San Jose Monday night Frederick B. Signor of Oakland, general manager of the Interurban Motor Express Company, drove his machine into a carriage containing Edward O. Brown, an orchardist, and Mrs. Brown, demolishing the carriage and injuring the occupants. It is probable that Brown's injuries will result fatally. Signor and James McCarnan of San Jose, with two women, were the occupants of the automobile.

NEW CHIHESE MINISTER

LANG TUN YEN, A GRADUATE OF YALE, IS A MAN OF COMMANDING INFLUENCE.

Washington, Sept. 12.—On April 23 last the Chinese Minister here, Sir Chen Tung Liang Chang, was informed of the purpose of his Government to recall him to China to take an important post in the Chinese foreign office and that he would be succeeded in Washington by Liang Tun Yen. So if the latter owes his appointment to Washington to Yuan Chi Kai, as reported from Pekin, it is evident that the great viceroy was able to arrange for his appointment long before he was himself summoned to Pekin as a member of the board of foreign affairs, and the inevitable inference is that the present upheaval in the court circle is the working out of plans formed months ago.

Liang Tun Yen, the new minister, was Chinese custom taoti at Tien Tsin and is understood to be one of the trusted lieutenants of Yuan Shi Kai, who has come to be regarded as the successor of Li Hung Chang as dictator of the destiny of China. Liang speaks English perfectly, being a graduate of Yale, and it is believed was chosen by Yuan Shi Kai to be Minister to Washington because he has most advanced ideas and is therefor likely to be of the greatest help to his chief for selecting for introduction into China such features of modern American civilization and Govermental methods as seem best adapted to the needs of the new element in the court which is seeking to reform China.

Advocates Drastic Methods.

New York, Sept. 12.—A statement attributed to Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1904, is published regarding recent newspaper exposures of campaign fund giving at the last national election.

Judge Parker in effect says that Congress should have performed the service that the newspapers are now attempting to render and that no man who is fair-minded and intelligent can doubt the accuracy of his famous charge regarding campaign funds near the close of his campaign.

Judge Parker also advocates imprisonment as a punishment for corporation campaign gifts.

The Santa Rosa Goes Ashore.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—Crowded to her fullest capacity with passengers and freight, the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Santa Rosa, with Captain E. Alexander at the helm, bound for this port from San Diego, in the dense fog which prevailed during the early hours yesterday, ran upon the rocks at Portuguese Bend, a dangerous stretch of coast seven miles to the northward of San Pedro.

After remaining several hours upon the jagged rocks near Point Vincent, due to the excellent seamanship displayed by her skipper and the captain of the tug Warrior, which was rushed to the scene of the wreck from San Pedro, the steamer was finally saved at a moment when it appeared that all efforts to save the vessel from the ravages of the sea must fail.

Church Wants Millionaire's Gold.

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 12.—The case against Peter Anderson, the young Swedish missionary who went to Alaska and came back a millionaire, has been taken to the Federal Circuit Court in an effort to force him to pay a judgment of $231,000. The judgment was secured by the Mission Society of the Swedish Church. The church claimed it furnished the means to send him to Alaska and won its suit. As yet it has been unable to collect.

BRUTALLY MURDERS HIS WIFE.

Woman Shot and Left Lying in the Public Street.

Oil City, Pa., Sept. 12.—"I have shot my wife. You will find her lying in the street. I think she is dead," said James Strait as he walked into the police station, followed by a crowd, and surrendered himself to the police. Officers investigated and found on a prominent street corner a woman mortally wounded. Strait had lived apart from his wife and 12-year-old son and had been working in a lumber camp. Mrs. Strait had supported herself and her son by working in a restaurant. Strait came to town and met his wife on her way to work. Without a word he drew a revolver and fired twice, the shots taking effect in the woman's breast.

Strait attempted to fire again, but the pistol refused to work and, throwing it away, he kicked the prostrate body of his wife about the sidewalk until stopped by the crowd. Strait refuses to give any reason for the shooting.

Chicago Woman Found Dead in Bed.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—The dead body of Miss Maud Westerfield, 26 years of age, was found in bed at her home at 151 Indiana street, with a bullet wound over the left temple. The police are searching for Edward Hildebrand, who had been boarding at the house.

UNKNOWN LAND FOUND IN NORTH

STEFFENSEN SAYS THAT MIKKELSEN EXPEDITION HAS PROVED SUCCESSFUL.

Professor Confirms Safety of Explorers and Tells of the Hardships Endured by Them.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 10.—Captain Eijnar Mikkelsen, Professor Ernest de K. Leffingwell and Professor Steffensen have accomplished the purposes of the expedition to the Beaufort sea which were, primarily, to discover land in the unknown regions of the Arctic circle and to add to the world's store of ethnological zoological and botanical knowledge.

Not only is this confirmed by Professor Steffensen himself, but the safety of every member of the ill-fated Duchess of Bedford is assured.

Details of the expedition have not been made known. When he hailed the steamer Koyukuk, near Fort Yukon, Alaska, Professor Stefensen merely announced the success of the explorers and stated that he was the bearer of dispatches.

The Professor said that the party had endured many hardships. He had made the almost impossible trip from Herschel Island up the Mackenzie river and down the Porcupine himself.

These statements are confirmed by a special cable to the Seattle Morning Times from Gibbon, Alaska, at which port the Koyukuk landed after having seen Steffensen. The cable follows:

"Professor Steffensen of Mikkelson's party hailed the steamer Koyukuk at Fort Yukon on September 3d.

"Steffensen said that he was carrying dispatches.

"He reported that the Mikkelsen party made the trip north over the ice and were successful.

"They encountered many hardships during the trip.

"Professor Steffensen made the almost impossible trip from Herschel Island up the Mackenzie river and down the porcupine. He reports the party all well and safe."

It was believed by the projectors of the expedition that an unknown land existed in the Beauford sea. The currents seemed to indicate this. The winds added to the strength of the theory. After a thorough investigation, Lord Rothschild, Duke of Bedford, financed the scheme and was supported by the Royal Geographical Society of London.

Though Steffensen failed to specify the nature of their success, it is believed that without the discovery of land little could have been accomplished in the direction of the minor objects of the expedition.

State Fair Judges Resign.

Sacramento, Sept. 10.—For the first time in the history of California State Fairs, Sacramento county will be a contestant for the prize offered for the best county exhibit. This announcement by those in chare of Sacramento's exhibit has resulted in the resignation of the entire board of judges, composed of Judge E. C. Hart of the Third District Appellate Court and Judge P. J. Shields and J. A. Hughes of the Superior Court. All three members of the board which was appointed to pass on the county exhibits are residents of Sacramento. They said that as Sacramento county undoubtedly has the largest and most varied display in the pavilion, she would have to be awarded first prize, and this they consider unfair to the other counties of the State.

Sacramento county was requested to withdraw from the contest, but refused tol do so.

Station Agent Held Up.

El Dorado, Kas., Sept. 10.—The night agent at the Missouri Pacific Railway station was held up here shortly after midnight and the safe in his office robbed of between $500 and $1,000.

The Kansas City Passenger train from Wichita had gone east a short time before, and every one had left the station except Edward Abbott, the night agent. He had taken the cash out of the money drawer and was putting it in the safe preparatory to going home for midnight luncheon, when two men suddenly appeared at the ticket window and told the agent to throw up his hands and that they would take care of the money. They made him open the office door. He was then blindfolded and told if he made a noise they would kill him. They secured between $500 and $1000.

The robbers escaped in a buggy.

NEWSY ITEMS FROM WILLITS

Interesting Budget of News From Our Northern Correspondent

Willits, Sep. 6--Sunday afternoon the news was received here that the contract for building the first three miles of the extension of the railroad had been let to the Warren Improvement Company of San Francisco. Early Monday morning the Willits News came out with an extra edition devoted entirely to this subject. As soon as the "extras" were circulated the railroad news was the one topic of conversation on the streets and in the homes. The contract only calls for three miles but this will take the road to the outlet of Little Lake valley. We are now expecting the special construction train loaded with men, teams and implements to arrive at anytime. This work must be rushed for the lower end of the valley is covered with water after the first heavy rain which remains until late in the following summer. This is the reason the grading will be rushed.

Engineer F. L. A. Gorlinski and crew came up from Ukiah Sunday and are now busy placing the grade stakes.

There were 113 tickets sold for the Santa Rosa circus excursion last Friday.

Mrs. Lizzie Riffe and family were down from Covelo this week.

Mrs. Reed and Miss Grace Reed returned to their home in Ukiah this week. They have been visiting friends and relatives here for two months.

Dave Goggins is shipping a great deal of piling to the Sacramento valley this week.

Bishop Moreland of the Episcopal church will hold sevrices at the I. O. O. F. hall next Sunday morning.

A woman by the name of Mrs. Florence Gardner died at Branscomb last Friday and was brought here to be embalmed for shipment below.

The Irvine & Muir lumber company have the temporary saw mill at the Big Basin of the Noyo cutting the timber for the big mill and the other improvements.

The last survey of the Fort Bragg railroad up Old's creek is by far the best and it is now stated that Willits will be connected with the coast next year.

Ole Peterson had all of the fingers and thumb of his left hand cut off by a saw at Bickenbender's mill Friday.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrohoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by J. R. Mathews, Ukiah, Cal.

LETTER FROM MENDOCINO

Mendocino, Sep 9—Mr. Grindle is having a new roof put on his residence.

Mrs. Foland has purchased the Jasperson cottage on School street and will make Mendocino her future home.

Dr. Fiensol is spending his leisure moments these days experimenting with his new kerosine wagon. It is needless to say he is finding quite a few houses sticking out in the street too far and several poles not set according to law. But never mind, doctor, they will soon all be removed that is if your machine holds out.

The Baptist church gave their Sunday school a picnic on Admission Day. A good time was reported by all, despite the disagreeable weather.

Mrs. A. Armas was tendered a surprise party last Friday evening. The party gathered at the house of Mr. Daniels and about 8:30 called on Mrs. Armas taking her by complete surprise. A most enjoyable time is reported by all in attendance.

Work on the grammar school building is advancing rapidly. The building has received a thorough over hauling and all worn parts have been replaced by new material. The people now have a school that in a credit to the community.

We are pleased to note the matriculation of Abbott Colburn formerly of this place, with P. & S. College to be come a dentist. Abbott has always been inclined to forge ahead and we wish him every success with his work.

Peterson and Dunbar's traveling show left Tuesday for Caspar after a week's performance in this place. The gold watch for the most popular young lady was awarded Miss Deena Hansen.

A light rain fell here Sunday morning doing untold damage to the fog crop.

Order to Show Cause

In the Superior Court, County of Mendocino, State of California.

In the matter of the estate of Leonhard Berchtold, deceased.

Gertruda W. Berchtold, administratrix of the estate of Leonhard Berchtold, deceased, having filed her petition herein praying for an order authorizing her to lease for a period of one year the real estate belonging to the estate of said deceased, for the purpose therein set forth,

It is therefore ordered by this court that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased appear before said superior court on Monday the 30th day of September, 1907 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the court house of said superior court at Ukiah, California, to show cause, if any they have, why an order should not be granted to the said administratrix to lease the said real estate as prayed for in said petition; and that a copy of this order be published at least two successive weeks in the Dispatch-Democrat a newspaper printed and published in said county of Mendocino.

Dated this 3rd, day of September, 1907.

Chamberlains cough Remedy one of the best on the Market

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung troubles, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by J. R. Mathews, Ukiah Cal.

POINT ARENA AND VICINITY

A Resume of South Coast News Taken From the "Record"

Percy Brandt, a graduate of the Point Arena union high school, came up from Fish Rock and left by steamer for Los Angeles Wednesday, where he will enter the Occidental College to complete his education.

The carpenter work on the new school house is rapidly nearing completion. The building is a handsome one and a credit to the district. Contractor T. L. Hiett will be remembered by this institution of learning.

The M. E. Sunday school will meet for the first time next Sunday morning in their new church. With the exception of a few finishing touches, the edifice is about completed and is an ornament to the town. May the spirit of true christian fellowship and good will be so prevalent among its worshippers that all who enter it may find peace unmeasured.

The case of Ed Zimmerman vs. McNeal came up in Justice Parker's court yesterday, but the justice granted the planitiff's motion for a change of venue. The defendant took exceptions to the ruling on the ground that the affidavit was void, not being signed by the plaintiff. The place to which the case was assigned was not named when the court adjourned.

The Odd Fellows building is slowly nearing completion. The members had hoped to be in their new home before the first of September, but in these days of uncertain labor conditions prophecies are of no avail. It is reasonable now, however, that Garcia Lodge will meet in its new hall by the end of this month, and Phil Lobree will occupy the lower story as a general merchandise store shortly afterwards. Superintendent T. L. Hiett has certainly erected an attractive and imposing building.

Lame Back

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." Congratulated for Handling of Strike

New York, Sept. 11.—At the meeting of the executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company held yesterday, the payment of the usual quarterly dividend was provided for and the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company on behalf of the company hereby places on record its hearty appreciation and unqualified approval of the course which the president and the officers of this company have pursued in connection with the late strike of operators and congratulate them upon their success in maintaining the integrity of the service under the control and direction of those rightfully charged with the responsibility.

Burned Herself on Funeral Pyre

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 11.—Imagining that the Lord commanded her to share the fate of Jean d'Arc, Mrs. Joseph Lalonde of St. Lazare, a small French Canadian village, burned herself to death on a funeral pyre of her own making. While her relatives were at high mass she built the pyre from fence logs and tree branches, undressed herself entirely and climbed on the pyre, to which she set fire. The people coming out of church saw the smoke and the woman's clothes hanging on branches of near-by trees. Her body, partly consumed, had fallen from the pyre. She left letters explaining why she committed the deed.

ROBBER KILLS OFFICER'S WIFE

CORNERS THIEF, WHO OVERPOWERS HER AND SHOOTS HER WITH HER PISTOL

Murderer Escapes After Committing the Crime—Bloodhounds Are Placed on His Trail.

Norfolk, W. Va., Sept. 11.—Mrs. Mary Lawless Rorschach, wife of Lieutenant Frank Rorschach, U. S. N., and sister of Joseph T. Lawless, former Secretary of the Commonwealth of Virginia, was murdered in her home, No. 832 Park avenue, Portsmouth, by an unknown burglar early today. She was shot through the heart with her own pistol, taken from her hand by the burglar after she had fired twice upon him through an open door leading into the kitchen where he was cornered.

Whether the murderer was a negro or white man is unknown. He escaped, dropping the pistol as he fled from the house.

Bloodhounds brought from Portsmouth secured a scent, but soon lost it.

Mrs. Rorschach's husband is on the cruiser Tennessee with Admiral Evans' fleet off Provincetown, Mass. The shots awakened the oldest boy, Frank Jr., and the mother cried to the boy upstairs: "Frank, somebody has taken my pistol and shot me. Go quickly for help."

The boy rushed for help, but when he returned with neighbors his mother was dead.

The Rorschach home is immediately in the rear of the Naval Hospital woods in Portsmouth and near a lumber mill to which negroes frequently pass. A newsboy who lives near the home saw a negro shortly after the tragedy running rapidly by his home toward the small footbridge, where the bloodhounds went when they caught the scent.

While Mrs. Rorschach had a lamp in her hand the burglar was in the kitchen in the dark. She evidently heard the man and fired in his direction. Both bullets fired by the woman were found in the wall of the kitchen.

Mrs. Rorschach, with her money tied in a roll and hanging around her neck, had run down the back steps. She was found lying with her head on the second step. The pistol had been fired close to her left breast. Three chambers were empty. Of these two were fired by Mrs. Rorschach and one by the burglar. Her money and jewelry were untouched.

Mrs. Rorschach was a handsome woman about 36 years old and one of the most accomplished musicians in Virginia. Lieutenant Rorschach was formerly of Kansas, but was appointed to the navy from Virginia.

Had Tetter for 30 Years

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. Ordanance No. 159

Regulating the business of selling or giving away intoxicating liquor in quantities less than one quart and providing for the issuance of licenses for the same.

The board of supervisors of the county of Mendocino, State of California, do ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. Any person who desires to engage in, conduct or carry on the business of selling or giving away intoxicating liquors in quantities not less than one quart (except persons who have secured a license under Ordinance No. 158 of Mendocino county) at any place in the said County of Mendocino, State of California, outside the corporate limits of any city, shall file with the said board of supervisors of said county, an application in writing singed by the applicant or applicants stating the exact place where it is proposed to carry on such business. Said board of supervisors shall hear said application at its first regular meeting after filing the same, and if said applicant or applicants are in the opinion of a majority of the members of said board not fit or proper persons to conduct said business, or if in the opinion of a majority of the members of said board, the place where it is proposed to conduct said business is not a fit or proper place therefor, said board shall reject said application.

If said board of supervisors determine that a license should issue to any applicant they shall make an order to that effect directing the Tax Collector of said county to issue such license upon the payment by said applicant of the license tax for the same in advance and enter the same in their minutes, and the clerk of said board shall certify a list of the names of all persons to whom licenses are directed to be issued and the place where the said business is to be carried on to the said tax collector under the seal of said board.

Sec. 2. For each license issued hereunder the applicant shall pay in advance to the tax collector the sum of $25 for each quarter-year; each quarter-year to begin on the 1st day of each of the following months: January, April, July and October. No license issued under this ordinance shall be transferable and no rebate shall be granted for any unused portion thereof. Any applicant for a license during any quarter shall only be required to pay for the unexpired portion of the quarter.

Sec. 3. Every person conducting a business under this ordinance shall conduct the same in a quiet, decent and orderly manner. Any person may file with said board a complaint in writing signed by such person and verified in the same manner as verified pleadings, alleging that any person holding a license under this ordinance is conducting a noisy, boisterous or disorderly house and said board shall immediately appoint a time and place for hearing such charges and cause notice thereof to be served on said accused person to appear before said board and show cause why his license should not be revoked. Witnesses may be produced on both sides. If said charge shall be found to be true or the person cited shall fail to appear then such license shall be revoked by said board and said licensee shall not thereafter be granted any license under this ordinance for the period of one year, thereafter.

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business specified in this ordinance at any place in said county outside the corporate limits of any city unless he shall first procure the license herein provided for, and any person engaging in such business without first procuring such license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force on and after the 1st day of October, A. D. 1907, and prior thereto shall be published one week in the Dispatch-Democrat, a newspaper printed and published in said County of Mendocino.

The vote on the passage of this Ordinance was as follows:

Ayes: L. Barnard, D. H. Lawson, M. L. Gibson, W. T. Saxon, E. P. Gillmore.

Noes: None.

D. H. LAWSON,

Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of said County of Mendocino, California.

Attest: Hale McCowen, County Clerk, and exofficio clerk of said Board of Supervisors.

MIDDLE COAST NEWS ITEMS

Items Gleamed From the "Beacon" For Our Coast Readers

From time to time the Beacon has lately published something of the rumors which have leaked out from the powers that be relative to the sale of the Albion Lumber Company's extensive plant and large timber holdings. These rumors have been denied but where there was so much smoke it was believed there must be some fire. The Beacon can now announce that the Southern Pacific Company clinched the deal for the purchase of the Albion property on the first of the month. Yesterday, the 6th, C. R. Brady, in the name of a subsidiary company took possession of the property. It is understood that the principal portion of the output of the plant, for some time to come, will be shipped to Mexican ports to be used in the building of the track, bridges and depots of the huge system of railroads which the Harriman people are putting into Mexico.

Work has begun on the Navarro river, and if all goes well, a short time will see the contract finished and the highway down the coast once more unobstructed. George Cameron has been at work breaking up the wreck of the suspension bridge, which lodged about three hundred yards down the river when it went out last winter, and hauling the timbers over on the flat and piling them up. It is reported that a piledriver will be taken by water around the point between Albion and Navarro and in at the mouth of the Navarro river, and as soon as this is done, active construction work will be commenced. The new bridge is to be of wood and will be in two spans with a pier in the center of the river. It will be built upon the site of the old wooden bridge a little way below the steel suspension bridge which went out last winter. The contractors are Healey, Tibbetts & Co., and the contract calls for completion of the work in 90 days from the signing of the papers.

To Keep from Growing Old

Here's the HORTON Galvanized Rotary Washer, which takes the washday droop out of your shoulders and the careworn lines of toil from around your eyes. You do not bend your back at all with this washer—which means you will keep your youth ten years longer. You do not grind violently on a crank or jerk at a handle. The flywheel of the HORTON Washer is balanced to swing VERY easily in a continuous direction. YOU DO NOT TURN FAST, you do not turn long, for the HORTON is high geared, so that an easy motion of the wheel produces an extremely high speed within the washer.

You need not be strong to handle the machine or carry it up cellar stairs. It is very light in weight, considering its strong construction, because the tub is of galvanized metal instead of wood—cannot dry out, leak or come apart, and keeps itself sweet and clean.

You will have to see this modern washer to appreciate what a blessing it is and how CLEAN it washes the clothes. The first time you are near a hardware store, ask them to show you the

Hop Pickers Victorious

An aggregation of ball players that have been picking hops in this vicinity for the past few weeks swept the Ukiahites away in a game last Sunday. It was the same nine that Ukiah defeated the Sunday before. They played better ball, or Ukiah played poorer, for they won easily by a score of 8 to 5. The game was not very exciting, however, but every thing was quieter than the Sunday before. After the game Bohoncus and Sponutaro gave an exhibition of their fistic ability, but Bohoncus got an uppercut in the snout and gave way to Monondodeedeehe, who proved himself to be a regular Battling Nelson for a few minutes.

During the fake scrap, however, Round mouth and That Taboll got into a real mix up that was fast and fruious for a few minutes. Round mouth got it on the proboscis, however, and the mob yelled and rushed in and the real thing gave way to the fake. Attendance 316.

PINHEAD GOES WRONG AGAIN

The editor of the Times seems to have taken a week off and is attacking everything and everybody promiscuously. In the last issue the irresponsible sheet, under the guise of "Missourian" asks how it costs $53.50 to feed the drunks in the city jail last month and only $17.20 during all of 1904? And then further asks where the tax payer gets off?

Recorder Wilson took the pains to look up the records of 1903-4, and found the following facts: Amount of fines collected in 1903, $47.75; amount of fines collected in 1904, $165; amount of fines collected from August 1906 to August 1907, $833.-25. Some further facts for the Tax payer—In 1904 there was a deficiency in the "Hobo" fund of $23.25; in 1904 there was a deficiency of $53 in the funds. While the year just passed shows a net gain of $181.25. In other words it costs $23 and $53 more respectively to board the drunks than was taken in in fines in 1903-4, while last year there was a net balance to the good of $181.25. There is where the Taxpayer gets off. Any more questions, Mr. Hard Times?

GRADING CONTRACT LET LAST WEEK

P. L. Hall was down from Willits Monday on business, and was met by a representative of the Dispatch, to whom he gave the information that the contract to grade the Eureka railroad from Willits down beyond the outlet was let the latter part of last week to a San Francisco construction company, the grading to be completed in 60 days. The idea is to have the swampy part of the track graded before the rains set in. From the amount of land the company is taking through the Simonson place it would seem that Willits is to be made the end of a division.

Mondocino Horseman

T. Charlton of Ukiah, Mendocino county, is here attending the races. It is his first visit to Woodland and he is much pleased with the county. In 1858 he located in Suisun. In 1864 he removed to Ukiah, where he is engaged in blacksmithing and wagonmaking, the firm name being T. Charlton & Son. Mr. Charlton is the owner of Dumont S., seven years old, and a full brother to Sonoma Girl. He has been trained but little and never raced. At four years of age he was given a mark of 2:20 but has since done miles in 2:16 and 2:15. Mr. Charlton expects to leave for home Saturday morning.—Woodland Democrat.

All persons who made final proof on government land in the San Francisco district prior to the destruction of the records in the San Francisco fire of April 18, 1906, and on which patents has not issued, are requested to communicate at once with T. G. Daniels, Register, or S. S. Morton, Receiver, at the United States Land Office, at Oakland, California, giving the description of the land and the date when proof was made.

Summons

In the Supreior Court, County of Mendocino, State of California.

Byron Gould, plaintiff, vs. Jennie Gould, defendant.

The people of the State of California send greetings to: Jennie Gould, defendant.

You are hereby directed to appear and answer the complaint in an action entitled as above, brought against you in the Superior Court of the County of Mendocino, State of California, within ten days after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county, or within 30 days if served elsewhere.

And you are notified that unless you appear and answer as above required, the said palintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint, as arising upon contract, or he will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in complaint.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Superior Court of the County of Mendocino, State of California, this 5th day of June A. D., 1907.

HALE McCOWEN, Clerk.
(Seal.) 2m.

CUT THEM ALL OUT.

The Enemies One Is Likely to Meet In His Vocabulary.

"In the dictionary of fools we find 'I can't' very often, plenty of 'ifs' and lots of words like 'luck' and 'destiny' and phrases like 'If I only had time or a chance like other people!'"

Did you ever think that many of the words and phrases which you constantly use are your real enemies, that they leave their hideous pictures and black shadows in your mind?

How many times have you been kept from doing a good deed by such phrases as "Oh, I can't do that," "I am afraid that that will not turn out well," "Oh, I know I can't do that," "Somebody else can do that a great deal better," "I am afraid to try," "I haven't the courage," "I fear I shall take cold or catch some disease if I do this or that?"

I believe that those two words, "I can't," have ruined more prospects and have kept more ability doing the work of mediocrity than any other two words in our language.

"I am afraid of this or that" is a terrible hinderer, a terrible blighter of ambition, a cooler of enthusiasm.

All achievement and all efficiency depend upon initiative, and that is easily killed by the fear words, the words which express doubt and uncertainty.

"By thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned."—Success.

VALUE OF WALKING.

Benefits to Be Derived From This Form of Exercise.

There is hardly an instance of a long lived man who has not been for the best part of his life a brisk walker and for some reason or other has had to take exercise pretty well every day.

Riding is all very well and so are other exercises, but there is nothing like a good walk, because it stimulates the blood and the muscles and necessitates being in the open air.

If those who complain of being stout would only think of this and never omit a daily constitutional they would be amply rewarded. It will keep them young and their figures presentable.

It is simply a remedy that no one heeds to. Sitting about in the open air is all very well and is far better than sitting in the house, but it does not keep you in good health.

It is quite another thing to overfatigue oneself. There is nothing better than to get into a healthy perspiration by walking. It is just like drinking a glass of cold water in the morning. It is so simple no one believes in it.

This may not suit everybody, but those it does suit it will keep in health. —Pittsburg Press.

Help the Editor.

An Oklahoma editor puts forth this plea: "My friend, help the editor in his wide eyed search for news. When your friends come to you, if you are not ashamed of it, tell him; when your wife gives a tea party, if you will have recovered from the effects of the gossip, drop in with the news; when a baby arrives fill your pockets with cigars and call; if you go to a party, steal some of the good things and leave 'em with the item in our sanctum. If your wife licks you, come in and let us see your scars and tender sympathy through the paper. If your mother-in-law has died, don't be bashful about it; give in all the commonplace news. In short, whatever makes you feel proud, sad, lonesome or glad submit it to our twenty-four carat wisdom and see our matted lock part and stand up on end with gratitude, which will pour from every pore with moisture from a dew besprinkled earth."—Topeka State-Journal.

The Bird Got Wise.

A gentleman by way of a joke placed a golf ball in the nest of his ancient parrot. Polly sat with exemplary patience on her novel egg and appeared pretty nearly heartbroken when the weeks went by and she found herself unrewarded. At last she could stand it no longer. A terrible screeching brought her owner downstairs at 4 o'clock in the morning.

"What's the matter, Polly?" he asked as he noticed that the bird's beak was chipped through trying to get at the interior.

"Matter!" screetched Polly. "Great Scott, I'm bunkered!"—London Telegraph.

Pedestrian Rights.

Only in Great Britain, so far as I know, does the law hold that a foot passenger has an equal right to the highway with the wheeled traffic and that it is the duty of the driver of the latter to avoid at all costs the former, even if he has to do so at considerable inconvenience and often danger. In other countries, on the contrary, it is the duty of the pedestrian to give way to the wheeled traffic.—Atlanta Constitution.

Poor Old Sol!

An astronomer says that an enormous dark planet is rushing toward the sun and that the impact, which is to take place in a few thousand years, will be frightful. Great Caesar! If that's the case, Old Sol stands a good chance of having the spots knocked out of him.—Morristown Times.

What Ma Said.

Little Girl (to lady visitor)—Please, Miss Jawerer, let me see your tongue. Miss J. (surprised)—Why, my dear? Little Girl—Why, ma said you'd no end of a tongue.—London Sketch.

We never enjoy perfect happiness. Our most fortunate successes are mingled with sadness. Some anxieties always perplex the reality of our satisfaction.—Corneille.

INGERSOLL'S THEORIES OF RECOMPENSE

Every man ought to be willing to pay for what he gets, wrote Robert G. Ingersoll. He ought to desire to give full value received. The man who wants $2.00 worth of work for $1.00 is not an honest man. The man who wants others to work to such an extent that their lives are burdens is utterly heartless. The toil of the world should continually decrease. Of what use are your inventions if no burden is lifted from industry? If no additional comforts find their way to the home of labor, why should labor fill the world with wealth and live in want? Every labor-saving machine should help the whole world. Every one should tend to shorten the hours of labor. Reasonable labor is a source of joy. To work for wife and child, to toil for those you love, is happiness, provided you can make them happy. But to work like a slave, to see your wife and children in rags, to sit at a table where food is coarse and scarce, to rise at four in the morning, to work all day and throw your tired bones upon a miserable bed at night, to live without leisure, without rest, without making those you love comfortable and happy;—this is not living, it is dying a slow, lingering crucifixion. The hours of labor should be shortened. With the vast and wonderful improvements of the nineteenth century there should be not only the necessities of life for those who toil, but comforts and luxuries as well. What is a reasonable price for labor? I answer: such a price as will enable the man to live; to have the comforts of life; to lay by something for his declining years, so that he can own his own home, his own fireside—so that he can preserve the feelings of a man. I sympathize with every honest effort made by the children of labor to improve their condition. That is a poorly governed country in which those who do the most have the least. There is something wrong when men are obliged to beg for leave to toil. We are not yet a civilized people. When we are, pauperism and crime will vanish from our land.

A BOY'S ESSAY ON GIRLS

Girls are the siters of boys and has long hare, wears dresses an' powder. The first girl was called Christmas Eve though I never cud see why. Most every family has a girl and some of 'em that is in hard luck has two or three. We have a girl in ourn who is my sister. Girls can grow older and get younger. My sister has been twenty-five fur three years and some day we may be twins. Girls play the pianner and talk about each other. Fat girls want to be thin and thin girls want to be fat and all of 'em want to marry doods. Why the Lord made girls nobody nos, but I think it were to go to church and eat ice cream. They is three kinds of girls, burnt girls, blond girls and them that have money. Girls is afraid of mice and bugs, which makes it fun to put them down their backs."—Ex

An Irishman, being in bed in an inn during a terrible windstorm, was warned by the land lord to get up at once, for the house was liable to fall over his head at any minute. "What care I for the house?" said the Irishman, turning over to sleep on his pillow, "It don't belong to me; I'm only a lodger."

People are queer. If a man's neighbor is kicked by a horse, the neighbors are serious and concerned for the injured man's welfare. But if the neighbor is kicked by a mule, the best the neighbors can do for him is to laugh.

Fred Whited was down from Willits Tuesday on business.

SYMPATHY

It has been said that "the supreme need of the world is human sympathy," that it is better than riches, better than place or power, for in the hour of direct need it binds the broken heart, comforts the sorrowful and lifts up the fallen. Therefore in the words of Beattie "let us cherish sympathy." By attention and exercise it may be improved in every man. It prepares the mind for receiving the impressions of virtue; and without it there can be no true politeness. Nothing is more odious than that insensibility which wraps a man up in himself and his own concerns, and prevents his being moved with either the joys or sorrows or another." It is by sympathy that we enter into the concerns of others, that we are moved as they are moved, and we are by it prevented from being indifferent spectators of almost anything which men can do or suffer. There is sympathy of kindness in words and such is often better than financial aid if it puts a man on his feet when fallen, or opens possibilities for escape from dire disaster. A contemporary says:

"The primal purpose of fraternal societies is to encourage human sympathy. At our altars the tie of sympathy and helpfulness is forged and every good man is a manlier man, and every good woman is a more womanly woman because of the vows taken. The desire for fellowship is universal; life is lonely without it, existence is sweetened by it, and trouble is lightened by dividing the burden."

A Western editor has come to the conclusion that the people who desire "puffs" in his paper must pay the following prices: For telling the public that a man is a successful citizen when everyone knows he is lazy as a Government mule, $2.75; referring to a deceased citizen as one who is mourned by the entire community when he knows he will only be missed by the poker circles $1.80; referring to some gallivanting female as an estimable lady whom it is a pleasure to meet, when every business man in town would rather see the devil coming, horns hoofs and all, than to see her coming toward them, $3.10; calling an ordinary pulpit pounder an eminent devine, 60 cents; sending a tough sinner to heaven with poetry, $5.—Ex.

The Christian Observer makes a good point as follows: "When people say religion is dying, will they explain the world's best selling book? It takes a very successful novel to sell 40,000 or 50,000 a year. But last year 16,000,000 copies of the Bible, in whole or in portions, translated into a vast Babel of tongues were scattered broadcast over the earth." This is well said. It is only one of the many evidences which go to prove most conclusively that instead of dying, Christianity is spreading more and more over all the earth.

And now they are calling the House of Lords in England, the "House of Landlords." This shows the feeling of the people of England towards the House of Lords, and probably the beginning of the end of that body, or at least its modification so that it may become responsive to the will of the people.

BIG WAR IN HOP YARD

A Casual Observer Tells of Misunderstanding in a Hopland Yard

Owing to a slight misunderstanding between two hop growers one seems to have "agitated" a war on the other, —in fact the agitation became quite general. The peace and quiet of the beer blossom meadow was somewhat disturbed. Hop glomers became frantic, dogs barked at the strangers, horses ran away, ladies became hysterical, and the trellis wires fairly trembled. In fact from all accounts one would think that Perrington's hop yard conducted by Mr. Edsen, had been visited by a cyclone or a great earthquake.

There is always a "clam" after a storm, and when the smoke cleared away and the hop poles corded in a neat little pile, it was quickly observed that the aforesaid Edsen had sworn out a warrant for the arrest of two young men by the names of Smith and White, known as Split and Red by "de gang." A posse was sent to Hopland and the boys above mentioned were landed in Hotel Donohoe. In the course of time the boys were arraigned before Judge Crockett, a jury was empaneled. Mr. McNab was employed by defendants Red and Split, and the able district attorney, assisted by Chas Mannon, represented the prosecution. So at it they went hammer and tongs.

It appeared that Mr. Edson and Mr. Perrington were partners in a hop yard, at hopville. Edsen's part of the contract was to have the beer pods amputated from the vines and pay for same, while Perrington was to singe the vegetable life out of the boozy pods by thrusting pine timber into the hiatus of his hop kiln day and night.

Mr. Perrington became under the impression that the pole wielder of the prosecution witness had been iflmflamming him on the weights of the green pods so he painted Mr. White, alias Split, and Mr. Smith, alais Red, up in their war paint and sent them on their way to procure the weight of said pods. Upon reaching the tripod steelyards the weights were demanded by Red, the Napoleon of the day, but his demands were rejected, but upon letting out a couple of war whoops and whistling keener than a "whil-a-loo-bird," Split appeared on the scene breathlessly demanding the weights, but by casting a gleam over his left shoulder he observed the antiquated field boss and seized a hop pole and was in an attitude to part his bristles in a new place. Upon seeing Pa Edsen in this attitude Split also grabbed a hop pole and the two gladiators glared at each other as did Brutus and Caesar in their memorable fight. On account of failing to agree on the proper undertaking establishment they abandoned the row, which immediately was taken up by Hank Edsen, a son of the old man, and the real "durable Dane" of the melee. He declared he could lick his weight in wild cats or pole cats, or elephants. He and Split became engaged in a fistic encounter and it was lucky that neither was killed. In the meantime Red was waving a hop pole over his sunburnt head, but the heroine of the day came to the assistance of the frantic crowd, leaped upon a hop pole, as did Molly Pitcher of Revolutionary fame, and gently extracted said pole from the mits of the Red demon.

She gently slipped the weapon to the hysterical ma, who threw it so far that the hop growers will have a difficult time finding it. Then and there the confusion ended. The maiden smiled and pleaded and the old Red war horse became passified, so Red and Split went on their way accompanied by an officer. They lodged in jail eight days but are now enjoying freedom at the Perrington hop yard and peace reigneth in the land of hops.

SUDDEN DEATH OF GUY WHIPPLE

Boonville, Sep. 11—Friends of Guy Whipple were sorrowfully surprised last Saturday when it was telephoned over that he had died in Greenwood that day. He had been working on the threshing machine, belonging to his brothers, and about a week ago a small sore formed on his lip, and the next day his face and lips were badly swollen. He was feeding the machine and it is thought that something poisonous in the chaff got in it and caused blood poison. He was taken sick and grew rapidly worse.

Three of the best doctors on the coast attended him, but could not give any relief. His father was sent for and was there when he died. He was brought over Saturday and the funeral, which was largely attended was held at eight o'clock Monday morning, at the Studebaker cemetery where he was laid near his mother and sisters who had passed away before. Rev. Otha Wilkison, of Ukiah conducted the services.

The decesed was highly respected and loved by all who knew him. He was only twenty-three years of age, and of estimable character. The blow fell heavily on all the family, especially on the aged father. It was made harder by this being the sixth burial from the home in ten years. His father is an old settler here, and the entire community sympathizes with him in his loss. Guy will be greatly missed by the young people in all social gatherings

HOP CROP ABOUT ONE FOURTH SHORT

Hop picking is now about over, the last of the hops being gathered in today. The crop is just about one fourth short of last year. Toward the end of picking lice were found in large quantities in several yards and many hops were destroyed by the pest. Some hops have arleady been baled and the quality is excellent.

There is little news to add to what has been published the past two weeks. The California crop seems to be a third short of last year. The same condition prevails in Oregon and Washington. Many of last year's hops are still in the hands of the growers. Offers of 3 and 4 cents are made for last year's hops, while the market has not opened on this year's crop. According to Santa Rosa papers hops advanced there 1 cent a pound last Saturday.

Misses Madge Ellis and Perle Taylor arrived home this week from an extended vacation. They visited in Portland and Seattle for several weeks and then returned to the city where they spent several weeks studying the latest creations in fall millinery. They have returned ready for the fall trade in their line. They report a very pleasant and profitable vacation.

Miss Mary McCowen visited friends in Lakeport the first of the week.
